SUBMISSIONS

- The Organising Committee of the ISAF 2022 invites you and encourages you to submit your contributions as Full Papers which will be reviewed by the Programme Committee and the accepted papers will be published in e-version of the Journal of Agricultural, Food and Environmental Authors Guidelines / General Remarks

- Manuscript must be original unpublished work, based on original research and contain novel findings, which have not been previously published elsewhere (except as abstracts, theses, short reports). It is recommendable that manuscripts address the problems relevant for agriculture of a temperate climate zone. The contributions must present recent research data adequately statistically validated and followed by a comprehensive discussion of factors affecting results. Results reported in manuscripts must be based on repeated trials or experiments. Review articles are also considered, but generally upon invitation by the Editors.

- Manuscripts must be written in clear, concise and grammatically correct English using simple declarative sentences. English spelling and grammar should follow standard British English usage. Authors are strongly advised to have papers reviewed linguistically prior to submission. Authors are responsible for submitting well-written manuscripts.

- The manuscript should be prepared as Microsoft Word document, in English language, on numbered pages of A4 format, Times New Roman font 12pt, with 1.5 line spacing, justified, and standard margins (2.54 cm) at all sides of every page. Paragraph should have 1 cm indentation, with no spaces between paragraphs in the text.

- The text should be organized into clearly defined sections. TITLE of the article and headings (ABSTRACT, INTRODUCTION, MATERIALS AND METHODS, RESULTS AND DISCUSSION, CONCLUSIONS, REFERENCES).

- The headings and subheadings for section titles in the text should be aligned left. HEADINGS are in capitalized letters and bold type. First order subheadings are in Sentence Case Bold, Normal, and Second order subheadings are in Sentence Case, Italic. Include an empty line before each heading and subheading.

- The International System of Units (SI) should be used.

- A manuscript should not exceed 6000 words. Exceptions can be made if the content and quality of the paper justify it (at the discretion of the Editor).

- Suitability of the articles for this journal is approved, and its contents are arranged by the Editorial Board members, representing the key areas and branches of agriculture, food and environmental sciences. Manuscripts may be rejected without peer-review by the Editor if they do not meet the author guidelines, or do not fall within the scope of the journal.

- Manuscripts are organized in two documents (submissions): cover page and manuscript.

- Please see the Detailed Author Guidelines enclosed with this Announcement and available at ISAF 2022 website.

- Please upload your Full Paper using your Personal Account on https://www.conftool.pro/isaf2022/.
